Slate Hill Interview Process

The Elder team and the Church Board have been discussing significant issues regarding Slate Hill affiliations with Lancaster Mennonite Conference and Mennonite Church USA. We want input from everyone who regularly attends Slate Hill. Over the next few months, the Elder Team, along with Bishop Richard MIninger, will be interviewing every couple/single adult in the church. You will be meeting with an Elder who will invite you to respond to four questions. The first question will ask about your experience at Slate Hill. The second and third questions will deal with affiliation and sexuality. The last question will address any other items you would like to share. The questions are on the back of this sheet.

Initially, we plan on having several evenings/Sundays for you to meet at the church with an Elder. There will be a signup in the foyer to schedule your thirty minute interview time. If you cannot make any of these, there will be other opportunities to meet with an Elder.

We look forward to hearing from our church family as we prayerfully seek out God's will for our church. We strongly urge each couple/single adult to participate.

Elder Team

Dave Bauman, Joy Fasick, Jen Fredrick, Ron Hershey, Caleb Miller, Lynn Shertzner

A copy of the above, along with the four questions under consideration, was put in your mailbox for your review. Please give us your input by scheduling a time slot (posted on the bulletin board) to meet with one of the elders.

THANK YOU!
THANK YOU!
THANK YOU!

Dawn and I thank our church family for your generous gift for Pastor Appreciation. We are blessed to be part of a caring and supportive church family. We covet your prayers and encouragement as we together serve our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Lynn and Dawn Shertzer

Thank you for the generous gift of pastoral appreciation that was shared on March 20. I am blessed to be a part of such a loving and supportive church family and give thanks for the ways that each of you contribute to the ministry of our congregation!

Joy

Thank you, my dear church family, for all your love, support, and generosity. It is a joy and privilege to serve as your church secretary! May God add His blessings upon all.

Tamar Speaks!

A SafeChurch Retreat

for Adult Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse

April 23, 2016 8:30 AM – 3:00 PM

Adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse are invited to join with others from faith communities on April 23 for a day of reflecting on how our journeys of healing give voice to Tamar, a daughter of King David raped by her brother. Like many survivors today, Tamar silently carried the shame that rightfully belonged to her abuser.

The Retreat will be held at the Gretna Glen Retreat Center, 87 Old Mine Road, Lebanon, PA. The cost is $25. If anyone has a financial hardship with the cost, please email Deborah Saline at dsaline@prworksinc.com.

Those who have previously attended these retreats are welcome to come back! We are including some new activities and fresh material, so please add your voice!

Led by Lisa Hanna Witmer, MSW, LSW, a trauma-trained therapist, and Linda Crockett, Director of Samaritan SafeChurch, participants will be invited to use movement, writing, reflection and discussion to create resources to share with faith communities to raise awareness about this issue and inspire others to use their power as adults to protect children from sexual harm.

The Samaritan SafeChurch program works with congregations of varied denominations to equip all adults to protect children and teens from sexual abuse, not only in our churches, but also in the communities in which we live. A core aspect of SafeChurch is lifting up and empowering adult survivors of sexual abuse in our faith communities. For more information go to: www.samaritansafechurch.org

Questions about whether this retreat is “right” for you? Call Linda Crockett at Samaritan at 717-560-9991, or email LCrockett@scclanc.org.

JYF BAKED POTATO BAR & ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Sunday, April 10th

You are invited to the fundraising baked potato bar and ice cream social held by the Junior Youth Fellowship following Sunday School on April 10th. Funds will be used toward their Vertical Trek Zip-lining Adventure this Spring.

Come join us for a delicious luncheon and help fund our amazing youth group in building stronger relationships, self confidence, and teamwork. See you there!

MCC Sewing Group

Ladies, the next MCC Sewing date is Thursday April 14 from 6:30-9:00PM; come as your schedule permits.

Non-sewers are invited to join us. There are a number of kit bags ready for drawstrings to be inserted and we can use your help! Sewers, you may bring a portable sewing machine if you wish to help sew kit bags. If you have a cutting mat/rotary cutter, you may bring it to cut squares to make future comforters.

Participating in this group is an excellent way to connect and fellowship with other Slate Hill women as we “comfort” those in need!

Swahili Time

Greetings from Shirati Tanzania! In Tanzania, there is a concept known as Swahili Time. I'm sure you are familiar with the concept of being relationship oriented vs. being "on time" which is a back-burner priority here in Tanzania. This month, God has been gracious and patiently changing my attitude about Swahili Time. Admittedly, Swahili time can be super frustrating. Not knowing if an event will begin on time often causes inordinately large amounts of time spent waiting. Time that could have been spent doing something "productive". However, these times of waiting give space to reflect on experiences and build relationships with others waiting.

Christ has graciously demonstrated how to use time to hear Him speak and to slow down to see Him move. During devotionals one morning, it was pointed out that the world will keep on spinning, faster and faster if you let it. Schedule's fill up, but there always seems room for one more activity if I just schedule better or work more hours. The culture I grew up in seemed to praise busyness. The busier I am, the more successful I am, right? And I really enjoy being successful. I even tried to transfer that cultural mindset to my activities in TZ. The busier I am, the more the students learn - which means I am successful. As it turns out, that is not the truth. Success is fleeting and it is not meant to be the focus or measure of life. Christ is to be the center of everything I do. I began intentionally slowing down and watching for the moments of Christ. His moments of glory are present when He gives eyes to see. And He is worth it! I pray that He will give you eyes to see Him in the ordinary moments.

Praise:

- * My TZ nursing license has officially reached Shirati!
- * My Residence C permit has been approved and arrived!
- * For good health
- * For building community and relationships internationally.
- * For Christ's transcending culture

Prayer:

- * For Shirati nursing students
- * That Christ is discerned daily

In Christ,
Rachel Hoover/The Second Tunic

Slate Hill Quiz Team

8:42 AM. “Question 1. What did Moses receive...” When DJ buzzed in and confidently answered “living oracles” to this very first question of the very first match, we all knew it was going to be a fantastic day!

It was Saturday, March 19 and DJ Anderson, Ben Fasick, Reagan Werner, and Isaiah Zercher were at Central Christian High School in Kidron, OH. The event was the Invitational Quizzing Tournament, where 75 teams had gathered for the culmination of the 2016 Bible Quizzing Season. Slate Hill’s quizzers had already made a name for themselves. Although all four team members were complete novices to Bible Quizzing, they’d enjoyed quite a few wins since the season began on January 17 and had finished a respectable 18th out of the 28 teams in their league.

Just a week before the Ohio event, the team had a fine showing at the ACC Tournament in Lancaster, winning three of the six matches they’d played and surprising many of their competitors with their speed and accuracy. Even their losses that day were great matches, including a remarkably close match against the number two ranked team and a match that came down to the final question. Following the supper break, Reagan, Slate Hill’s highest point-scorer, and Isaiah, who had quizzed out (answered correctly three times in one match) five times that day, both had the distinction of being honored as part of the top 65 quizzers in all of ACC Quizzing. Of the close to 300 quizzers, Reagan and Isaiah finished 60 and 63, respectively.

While the numbers were impressive, it was the victories that can’t be quantified that made the season a true success. Through the excellent coaching of Kara and Caleb Miller, these four youths amassed an extensive array of knowledge of this year’s text, Acts 6-28. They also learned the strategy of quizzing – studying key words, memorizing interchangeable terms, using grammar clues to narrow the list of possible answers, pacing their buzz-ins, and even giving up the personal recognition of individual quiz-outs to create opportunities for the greater point gain of a team bonus. In addition, the four – who were by all accounts a diverse group of individuals – became good friends and now share many warm memories!

The excitement that DJ generated on that first buzz-in proved to be only a foretaste of what was to come. Slate Hill went on to quiz 11 times before the day was over, winning eight of those matches. The day included several team bonuses (achieved by having each quizzer buzz in and answer correctly at least once during the match), quiz outs from every Slate Hill player, gracious losses, camaraderie with competitors, several matches that come to the final question, and even one match that was tied after question 15 (the usual end to a match). That tie finally broke on question 18 when Ben buzzed in after “Testifying what...?” His correct reply, “That Jesus was the Christ”, on that final overtime question contributed to yet another Slate Hill win. Several matches later, it was another final-question nail-biter that brought an end to the season, with these four rookies finishing in an outstanding 11th place out of the 75 teams.

Sunday nights just aren’t the same without quizzing, but don’t worry, the Bibles aren’t gathering any dust. These teens have already begun reading for next year – working on several of Paul’s epistles and select stories from the Old Testament. Quizzing is open to youth grade seven through age 20. Talk to any member of this year’s team to learn how you can join in on the excitement!

Camp Hebron's Boots & Blue Jeans 2016 Benefit Auction Thursday, April 21, 5:30PM

Mark your calendars now to enjoy this entertaining event and support the horsemanship program of Camp Hebron.

The evening will begin with munchies and a silent auction of donated items ranging from crafts and gear to goods and getaways. At 7:00 the live auction will begin and will feature larger, more expensive items. A hot air balloon ride was auctioned several years, and a new event, a Chinese Auction, has been added this year - come take your chances.

Horse riding is an important and therapeutic part of Camp Hebron and it instills responsibility in young riders. The horses are used for a CHA Riding Instructor Clinic in June and the popular Fall Ride in October. Plus they are part of many of the camps and are also used by specialty groups. The horsemanship program is expensive and this annual auction helps provide funds for the horses and many costs such as gear, shelter, feed, personnel and veterinary care, corrals, trail upkeep, and costly insurance, just to name a few.

You are invited to join other supporters for the evening and/or make auction or monetary donations. Please check with Kathy Krug if you have questions - kefkat@comcast.net or 697-6903.

LIBRARY TIME WITH 4 - 6TH GRADERS

On Sunday, March 6, Dottie Seitz and Kathy Krug had a great time with the fourth through sixth graders during a special Junior Church session.

They met in the church library and each child was given a questionnaire with 15 questions to answer by using library materials. Teams of two or three were formed and they were soon searching the shelves for answers. Questions included “What Is Proper Behavior in the Library?”, “What Information Do You Write on the Card When You Checkout a Book?” and “How Long May a Book Be Borrowed?” One group quickly found the answers on posters in the library.

Children also had to find specific books from different sections in the library. Several titles included cookbooks - The Mennonite Community Cookbook, and Extending the Table. A specific book in the Juvenile section, Amish Cooking for Kids was searched for a list of all the ingredients to make Soft Pretzels. Some of the youth may be asking their parents to help make that tasty treat! The children were asked to locate one act of kindness mentioned in Simple Acts of Kindness they can apply at home or school. Another book, 50 Simple Things Kids Can Do to Save the Earth, was searched for a chapter entitled “Teach Your Parents Well.” They liked that title! The children were also taught the Dewey decimal number for the Holy Bible. Ask them if they remember it.

After all the research, they enjoyed a snack. Some comments from the children about their time in the library include:

Judah Parker and Henry Zercher – I enjoyed the competition in the game.

Silas Roth – I liked learning about some different books.

Deacon Weigel – I liked learning different things about the library.

Madison Weigel – I liked the food.

Ellie Fredrick – I liked learning.

Leland Zook – Hard questions!

Dottie and I commend these young hard-working youth who were very cooperative, respectful, and courteous to one another as well as to us.

Sewing Kit Donation Drive

Imagine not having the resources to provide food and shelter for your family. Sewing skills open the door to additional income that can help a family make ends meet. Sewing kits are given through MCC - supported programs that teach sewing or tailoring skills and provide the tools to make and mend clothing or to begin a business.

MCC is in urgent need of donations of sewing kits. The MCC Sewing Group is organizing a donation drive to collect items needed for the sewing kits. We invite you to partner with us to meet this need to provide life-changing skills and tools. We are already busy making the drawstring bags for the sewing kits. Look for the display board located on the table outside of the conference room and take one or more cards of the items you would like to donate. Feel free to take several cards or buy multiple items listed on the card. Perhaps you would like to join together with your small group or several other families to donate a complete kit. Please return your items to the "Sewing Kit" box under the mailboxes by May 22nd.

A complete kit consists of the following items: (new items please)

3 spools white thread

3 spools black thread

(each spool 250 yds. minimum; all-purpose, cotton / polyester or 100% polyester)

1 metric fabric tape measure

1 thimble (medium size)

1 dressmaker's scissors (good quality)

1 package needles (approx. 25)

1 package straight pins (approx. 100)

12 matching shirt-style buttons, black or white (approx. size ½ - 1 inch – place loose buttons in a resealable plastic bag)

1 package sew-on snaps (approx. 20-25)

10 assorted size safety pins

Many of these items can be purchased at local fabric or craft stores, such as JoAnn Fabrics, Michaels, A.C. Moore, WalMart or a store of your choice. Some of these stores publish weekly sales flyers, including coupons, in the Sunday newspaper. If shopping isn't your thing, you may also make a financial contribution and leave the shopping to someone else. You can make your contribution through the offering envelope system and designate the amount for "sewing kit" on the outside of the envelope. You may also make designations through on-line giving.

Thank you for partnering with us to donate items for the sewing kits. Your gift provides people with a new way to build a better future.

Hilltop Fun Fest Returns June 4, 2016

It's back! After the success of the past two years, we are gearing up for Hilltop Fun Fest 2016. This year's event will be held on Saturday, June 4 from 5:00 to 9:00 PM. Once again, it will feature live music, cornhole tournaments, children's activities, live animals, displays from local service organizations, Slate Hill's famous barbecue chicken, our own ice cream truck, and so much more. And best of all, the entire event is provided free of charge so that all of our neighbors can come and have a great experience!

The goals of Hilltop Fun Fest 2015 are to build and strengthen relationships, to practice hospitality, and to have fun living our faith! For those of you who were involved last year, you know that relationships were formed and groomed with people who had never been to Slate Hill before, with those who had been absent for many years, with local businesses and organizations, and also with each other. As we showed hospitality to our guests, we also had lots of fun living our faith! Smiles were everywhere and the excitement was contagious. We estimate that approximately 700 people attended HFF 2015 and we expect that number to grow in 2016!

Providing such a wonderful evening for our community takes a lot of work – both prior to and during the event. Many thanks to the following individuals who have committed to the behind-the-scenes efforts. Many of these folks are already hard at work preparing for HFF 2015:

Chris Zimmerman – Music
Elise Petersheim – Children's Activities
Ed & Taylor Fleischer – Corn-Hole Tournament
Lee Roland – Prayer
Tom Miller – Service Village
Carl Lehman – BBQ Chicken
John Pechart, Holly Myers, & Stacy Petersheim – Meal
Betty Zimmerman – Petting Zoo
Matt Fasick – Carnival Food
Ed White – Arcade

Rod Petersheim & Roger Myers—Fundraising
Rachael Zimmerman – Cemetery Tour
Jeff Beck and Lyndon Hess – Sky Lanterns
Gene Seitz – Parking and Bussing
Dave Boehm – Map/Schedule and Logistics
Trang & Julia Rioux – Prize Table/Raffles
Sharon Doll – T-Shirts
Sue Weigel – Safety Table & Fire Truck
Lorraine Kobald – Website
Valerie Weaver-Zercher – Correspondence Secretary
Danielle Hawley – Social Media
Josh Dean – Event Treasurer

Envelopes – Pick Yours While the Pickin’s Good!

In a few weeks, Hilltop Fun Fest envelopes notes will appear in the coffee area. The notes each represent expenses for the event. Would you like to sponsor fruit for guests? Pay a musician? Provide popcorn? Perhaps a bounce house is more your style – or you’d like to supply paper cups so that neighbors can cool off with a drink.

Envelopes will be available for every budget level and a huge variety of Hilltop Fun Fest needs. Take the one that fits you best, fill it with your donation and return it to the Hilltop Fun Fest mailbox. Checks can be made out to Slate Hill Mennonite Church with “Hilltop Fun Fest” written in the memo line. Please note your offering envelope number to make tax receipts easier. If you’re paying by cash, give your envelope directly to Josh Dean or Rod Petersheim.

All donations will remain anonymous. Also note that while your donation represents the cost for a specific item, we cannot guarantee that the funds will be used for that item. For example, if you provide $30 for ketchup and we receive a donation of actual ketchup from a local organization, we will put your $30 to another good use.

And – yes! – you may take more than one! In fact, this is one time where taking more than your fair share isn’t greedy at all. Hurry and pick yours while the pickin’s good – and let’s see how quickly we can make those envelopes disappear!
