Thank you so much for the kind words and gift last Sunday. Joyce and I were enriched by the Slate Hill Congregation. You and our small group were supportive during her illness and death. You provided opportunity for us to use our gifts. You supported Bridge of Hope, a ministry in which we believed. We especially appreciated the sense of unity and richness brought by the diversity in education, economic status, age, social, theological, and political perspectives. Thank you and may God bless your richly. ~ John W. Eby
