BBQ Committee Accepting Missional Funding Requests

Application Deadline, May 15, 2018

Periodically, our Chicken BBQ Committee has proceeds available to further the faith mission and community commitments of SHMC. The committee desires to support missions and activities for those who give of their time and efforts to have a successful BBQ. Proposals are due in writing (letter or email acceptable) to Ulli Klemm by Tuesday, May 15, 2018.

Who is eligible for consideration of funding?

The BBQ Committee has two main categories of recommendations including:

1. Retention of a portion of funds raised to maintain the sustainability of the operations of the SHMC Chicken BBQ operations. These reserved funds purchase supplies, operational items (new grills, fire pit canopy, etc.), or other operating expenses determined to be necessary for future BBQ preparations and sales.
2. To support mission initiatives in which a group or individuals supported by SHMC, or related to SHMC, has an active relationship. These projects could be within the church community, the nation and the world. The project or projects should address the values of Slate Hill Mennonite Church as "Living Our Faith."
 - a. The group/individual seeking funding should demonstrate a consistent commitment to applying donations directly to persons or projects (not administrative overheads) identified as their need.
 - b. The request should include a concise definition of the project to which the funds will be dedicated and the SHMC individuals/group which is/are involved in this project.
 - c. A dollar amount and the timing of the initiative's needs must be detailed.
 - d. Parties interested in having their projects receive funding are invited to support BBQ efforts with their time and efforts.
 - e. BBQ Committee recommendations will go to the Church Board for disposition.
 - f. The Church Board will inform the BBQ Committee of their decision and the BBQ Committee will, in turn, inform the requesting party of the availability of funding.

It's hard to believe, but May is here, and with it some nice, spring weather! May also brings additional preparation for Hilltop Fun Fest 2018 (HFF). Some people have been preparing their hearts by attending Wednesday Morning Prayer Meetings in the Conference Room at 8:00AM; others have been praying from home. There will be a special night of Praise and Worship at Slate Hill on Sunday, May 6 from 6:30PM-7:30PM and we invite your participation.

Our volunteers have been busy preparing for HFF 2018. ALL Slate Hillers, their families, and their friends are invited to volunteer for HFF. EVERYONE is invited to join the HFF team, and together we can work to find a position that fits the gifts and talents of each person. Last year, we had a team of over 150 people filling more than 300 positions. Truly, there is a place for every heart on the HFF team! The on-line Time-To-Signup site will go live on Sunday, May 6th. Volunteers can begin to sign up at that time. Encourage your family and friends in the community to lend a helping hand!

Fundraising is very important to HFF! As in past years, you will have the opportunity to donate toward the event by selecting an envelope for a designated amount and/or project from a display board. Please place your envelopes with donations in the Hilltop Fun Fest mailbox.

Several new activities are scheduled for the 2018 HFF. We are pleased to welcome juggler Forrest Davis! We will also add a Hilltop Hayride - a new ride for all ages which will wind through the Slate Hill cemetery and provide scenic views of God's beautiful creation.

A big thank you to EVERYONE involved with HFF, from the Leadership Team, the coordinators, and our blessed volunteers! We truly couldn't do it without you!

Slate Hill Volunteers Needed to Staff Carnival Games at Life Time Adult Day Care Friday, July 6, 2018, 9:30-11:30AM

Slate Hill Mennonite has been asked by CPARC to facilitate carnival games (many which are used for the Spring Fling) for the adults who frequent the Life Time Adult Day Care off the Carlisle Pike in Mechanicsburg on Friday, July 6, 2018 from 9:30-11:30AM. Life Time clients remember Slate Hill from our Christmas caroling there last year and they welcome Ulli Klemm who volunteers there one afternoon each month. About 15 volunteers are needed to help staff games for the carnival. Please consider lending a hand. Kids are welcome to volunteer and will do just fine.

Many of the clients frequenting this daycare have mild special needs and some are just frail and older. But all are very lovable and delight in visitors. Show up by 9:30 ready to stir up some fun and excitement for the clients. Ulli will have the games ready ahead of time. Upon arrival, pick a game you would like to monitor then enthusiastically invite folks to play a round. Applaud their efforts and give them a sticker. It's that simple!

Let Ulli know if you can help and if you can bring willing friends to assist as well.

Life Time Adult Day Care is located at 3 Crossgate Drive, Mechanicsburg PA 17050. Crossgate Drive is a small road that sits between Denny's and T-Mobile on the Carlisle Pike. Drive behind Denny's then to the back of the large National Recovery Agency (NRA) office building. The day care is located on the first floor with an entrance to the right.

Life Choices Boutique

What is Life Choices Boutique? It is the “store” of Capital Area Pregnancy Centers/Life Choices Clinic (CAPC) providing tangible love to mothers experiencing a crisis pregnancy. CAPC was founded in 1985 and is dedicated to helping women and their families facing an unplanned pregnancy. They show God’s great redeeming love by reaching out to everyone who comes to the center. CAPC is a non-profit 501(c) (3). All services are provided free of charge to clients and are supported financially by the community through donations and fund raising events. CAPC accepts no government funding.

Capital Area Pregnancy Center in Camp Hill is just one of the centers the Slate Hill MCC Sewing Group supplies with baby comforters. There have been several articles in the Hilltop News regarding adult-size comforters the group has made for distribution through MCC. What you may not know is we also make baby size comforters which are donated to local Christian pregnancy centers.

In April, when I dropped off several baby comforters to Life Choices, I received a tour of the boutique. I was truly amazed at the shelves and racks of clothing and other supplies waiting for the new moms to go “shopping”. Each new mom receives a clothes basket full of sleepers, wash cloths, receiving blankets, socks, undergarments, bottles, formula etc. - everything to help a new mom. The new moms can also go “shopping” in the extras room (our baby comforters are located there) for blankets, afghans, stuffed animals and other handmade items. Every item given to the new moms is donated. CAP is working with an increasing number of families who are of Muslim faith. The women often struggle to speak English so their husbands come with them – they are both very appreciative of all the items they receive.

I also learned many local churches hold “baby showers” to collect items to donate to Life Choices to keep their shelves and racks stocked with supplies. Volunteers rotate the clothing to keep it seasonally appropriate for new moms when they go “shopping” – just one more touch to make them feel special and appreciated. If you are interested in donating items to Life Choices, I would be happy to take the donations along when I drop off the comforters. You can contact me at 717-564-4265 or lmcaloose@yourgoodwill.org.

Praise God for this ministry to save lives and help families through tough times via counseling, clothing for both moms and babies, baby equipment, and emotional and spiritual support! CAPC conducts the following annual fundraising events to help support their ministry: a banquet, the “Baby Bottle Blast”, Golf “Fore” Life, A Shot at Life, and their fall Walk for Life. Visit their website if you wish to learn more: <http://www.capc4u.org/>.

CAPC truly deserves recognition and encouragement for Mother’s Day!

Going, Going, GONE!

Within about 90 minutes, all 850 chicken dinners were GONE. At 12:25PM on Saturday, April 21, the last two remaining chicken dinners were sold to Bob, a guy in a pick-up truck, who feared he was out of luck. "Am I too late?" Bob asked Ulli Klemm and Chris Zimmerman. "These are the last two dinners," Ulli said. Bob replied, "I'll take 'em both. Here's a $20. Keep the change."

Bob was the lucky one. But an estimated 25-30 others who drove up the hill after the "Sold Out" sign was displayed learned "better come earlier next time." According to Wayne Bechtel, who served as greeter for the event, approximately 243 vehicles came through the drive-thru in addition to walk-in customers. Once sales began around 10:50AM, there was no let up until all the dinners were gone.

Over 65 volunteers contributed in some way toward the BBQ's success. Long before any chicken halves were being doused with Carl Lehman's special BBQ sauce, a ton of preparation went into the BBQ. Carl went to Lowe's and Home Depot multiple times last fall to purchase charcoal when it was on sale. He also ordered and picked up the chicken. Cindy Musselman checked the inventory of paper goods and butter, replenishing what was needed. Roger Springer drove to Schuylkill county to pick up thirteen 50 lb. bags of the best potatoes in the world, while Gene Musselman picked up 72 dozen cookies from Weaver's Bakery in Port Treverton. Twelve double-sided signs were re-painted and strategically placed around the community. Fran Leiter ordered 69 dozen rolls which Ray picked up on Friday and delivered to the church in a big van. Ulli Klemm purchased and delivered 850 applesauce containers and water bottles to the church; everything was ready and waiting for Friday night prep work.

A record 32 persons converged in the church Friday night to wrap potatoes, package cookies, fill coolers with water bottles, cut open applesauce packaging, move tables and set up signs. Unknown to many volunteers working indoors, Ray Leiter and Eliezer Mwankenja were out back doing the critically important work of sanitizing the thermal insulated boxes for the grilled chicken. We were also blessed by multiple visitors who graciously donated their time and love; Wycliffe missionaries, Marty and Glenna Sollenberger, who were in the area visiting family and conducting a fundraising circuit, and the extended family of Yoomie Onelangsy. We are also grateful for several volunteers who had commitments during the BBQ on Saturday but supported the BBQ by coming Friday night to assist.

At 6:00AM Saturday morning, the BBQ Team met at the grills. Bob Saline provided two dozen donuts to sweeten the deal. Jeff Beck, James Mitchell, Carl Lehman, Gene Seitz, Ben Simcox, Lionel Hess, Tyler Barnes, Roger Myers, Lyndon, Olivia and Conner Hess worked their magic, perfected over the years. Inside, Fran Leiter and Betty Zimmerman were baking potatoes.

As the 11:00 hour neared, Sterling Miller, Joy Fasick, Glenna Sollenberger and Damaris Gehman got their marching orders to take customer orders and receive payments. Lamarr Widmer, Lucy McAloose and Rachel Zimmerman worked in tandem with those taking orders to deliver dinners to the customers. Meanwhile, the "Chicken Team" of Ernie Hartzler, Rod Petersheim and Theda Klemm donned their thermal gloves and prepared to slide piping hot chicken halves from the thermal boxes into individual foil BBQ bags for serving. Many others joined in the efficient & friendly assembly line.

After all hands on deck and a prayer, the BBQ went....going, going gone!

Special thanks to several unsung heroes who did the "no fanfare" work of clean-up until about 2:00PM. They included: Ray Leiter, Eliezer Mwankenja, man, Joy and Ellie Fasick, Sterling Miller, John Snyder and Stacy Stoltzfus. Great work team!

Hittin' the Books!

Here it is - my final Hittin' the Books article! Thank you for your support of my master's degree in counseling on the Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling (MCFC) Track at Messiah College. The church board has chosen to provide funding towards my graduate credits and many of you have offered prayers and encouragement along the way. May 12 ends this journey, one that has not gone as I expected, but has certainly gone as God knew it should. It also ends eight out of nine years as a student (the first three in STEP pastoral ministries training) and all of us Fasicks are certainly ready for that!!

While my internships at the Engle Center have been a true blessing, my heart is in pastoral work. I marvel at the coming together of a graduate program that ended two years later than I originally anticipated and a church mortgage that ended earlier than scheduled, giving Slate Hill the opportunity to begin to adjust staffing levels. I was content to anticipate searching for part-time work after graduation to supplement my part-time pastoral work. I am even more delighted to be able to meet part of the additional staffing need that exists here at Slate Hill, launching into full-time work that includes time designated for counseling. God is so good!

For those of you who are curious about what training a Marriage & Family Counseling receives, below is my course list. It's been a period of rich learning and I've been thankful to immediately apply this learning here at Slate Hill.

- Issues and Ethics for Professional Counselors
- Foundations of Marriage Couple and Family Counseling
- Lifespan Development
- Multicultural Issues for Counseling Professionals
- Counseling Theories
- Psychopathology and Diagnosis Across the Lifespan
- Career Counseling Across the Lifespan
- Contemporary & Integrative Theories of Family Counseling
