Back to School Kit Collections

You are invited to participate in the annual drive to provide school supplies to restock the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) emergency supply. Kits are sent to encourage and assist students and teachers in areas of crisis with their most basic educational needs. Our goal again this year is 100 kits. Last year we fell short of that goal but if we shop all those back-to-school sales, we can do it!! The MCC Sewing Group made more than enough bags in anticipation of meeting the 100 kit goal.

In addition to the items normally solicited, this year there are two new additions - ball point pens (blue or black ink) and METAL pencil sharpeners. Please see the full list below of items packed in each kit:

- 4 spiral or perforated notebooks
(70-sheet, 8 1/2 X 10 1/2 inches)
- 8 unsharpened pencils (points can break off during shipping, causing loss of much needed lead)
- 1 ruler (flat, flexible plastic, marked in both 30 cm and 12 inches)
- 12 colored pencils (in packaging)
- 1 large pencil eraser
- 1 ballpoint pen (blue or black ink)
- 1 metal pencil sharpener

The metal pencil sharpeners are proving to be very difficult to find! They are available online at Staples.com as a 4-pack and are priced at $6.49. You can also find them at: https://www.amazon.com/s/ref=nb\_sb\_ss\_i\_8\_5?url=search-alias%3Doffice-products&field-keywords=metal+pencil+sharpener&prefix=metal%2Coffice-products%2C187&crd=2TJ2IAC1SJ6Q9. Various manufacturers provide multiple pack options as well as quality - watch the stars!

Please place your donations on the table in the Fellowship Hall lobby. Thank you for your generous contributions! If you have any questions, please contact Stacy Petersheim.

MCC Sewing Group Donates Lunches for New Hope Ministry Children's Summer Program

New Hope Ministries once again invited groups to provide lunch for children enrolled in their summer programs. Praise God, all dates filled fairly rapidly so staff could concentrate on programming needs rather than on how to feed many little mouths!

Some ladies of the MCC Sewing Group broke away from their sewing tasks long enough to shop, make, and deliver 50 lunches to New Hope for the summer program. Several sandwich-making volunteers gathered early at the church on July 25th and the full lunch of sandwiches, a salty snack, fruit cup, bar cookies, and a drink were delivered to the Mechanicsburg center by 8:15AM.

What a privilege to serve God while little ones are being exposed to the Gospel!

June 7, 2018

To the Pastor and the Congregation of Slate Hill Mennonite Church:

On June 1, 2018, I had the privilege of being invited to the Hilltop Fun Fest at your church. I had been invited by Yoomie and Rick Onelangsy.

I'm happy to say I did attend the give back to the community fun day.

I wanted to thank the pastor, the congregation and all of the volunteers; it was simply awesome from being picked up at Christian Life Assembly to arriving at the church and from there, enjoying the fried chicken, baked beans and potato salad.

In addition the hospitality that everyone showed was unbelievable. I was simply in awe at how things ran so smoothly.

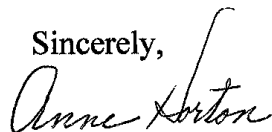

There were so many other activities, additional food, the band, bingo, face painting, petting zoo, crafts, and hair braiding to name a few. Who could ask for anything more?

I had never witnessed a church giving so much to the community.

Thank you to everyone at Slate Hill Mennonite Church for a very enjoyable afternoon.

God is good.

Sincerely,

Hi!

I'm Frances, a professional singer-songwriter from Newville, PA, who almost gave up on Christmas. Fortunately, Christmas didn't give up on me. I have encountered others who have felt this way, too, and I decided to do something about it!

One of the big reasons I secretly dreaded Christmas was because as a young girl, I had tragically lost two siblings. Christmas called attention to their absence, and I simply didn't know how to grieve their loss. I began to write songs about this journey, and years later it turned into a Christmas album, called Portraits of White. It has now become a musical extravaganza and is a holiday highlight for many.

Here's what others are saying:

"Amazing. Awesome. Magical. Inspirational. What a wonderful way to begin the Christmas season. Gave me the spirit of Christmas."

"A highlight of the Christmas season that is first-class and yet like sitting in your living room with friends."

"Commercialization of Christmas has worn me down over the years to the point of numbness, but Portraits of White has rejuvenated my heart again!"

WWW.PORTRAITSOFWHITE.COM

Frances will be performing her concert again this December right down the road from us at Christ Community Church! If you enjoy beautiful music, orchestras, lights and lovely scenery, don't miss this opportunity to hear her this year! You can preview a snippet of what the show is like by checking out this website: <https://portraitsofwhite.com/buy-tickets/>.

If you would like to be part of a group on Sunday afternoon (3:00), December 16, please sign up at the bulletin board by Sunday, August 12 and we will take the bus down the hill to ease parking. Ticket prices range from $25 to $45, depending upon the seating section, but group prices are discounted by 20%. As of this writing, there were still some fairly good seats in the mid-price range ($28 each at the group rate for 10 or more) which we will book. If you wish to be part of the group, please pay Fran Leiter or Dottie Seitz.

Seats are already selling out so we need to book NOW! Unfortunately, there are no refunds if your plans change but you are welcome to resell/give your ticket to someone else. Of course, you can also attend as an individual and purchase your ticket at a later date or for the Saturday night show or even in a different seating section if you prefer.

Pride of the Susquehanna Riverboat Worship Services

Each Sunday from June through August you can worship on the Pride of the Susquehanna Riverboat, leaving at 10am from City Island in Harrisburg. Worship is led by a different local pastor, church or group each week. Boarding begins 15 minutes before the start time, and the cruise lasts until around 11:15 AM. No reservations required, but seating is limited to first-come, first-served.

Freewill Offering: A freewill offering will be taken as you depart the boat. The offering is divided evenly between the Harrisburg Area Riverboat Society (to support riverboat operations) and Christian Churches United (to support its HELP Ministries). HELP Ministries provides emergency assistance to individuals and families in crisis, including: access to emergency shelter, rental assistance to prevent or end homelessness, utility assistance, and other emergency help, case management and referrals.

Slate Hill and Lao Fellowship Share the Joy of Christ

On Friday, July 6th, a combination of 23 volunteers from Slate Hill, the Lao Fellowship, and Trinity High School, converged at the Life Time Adult Day Care in Mechanicsburg for a morning of smiles, laughter and fun. For the third year in a row, volunteers put on a carnival for the adults with special needs who frequent the center. The Day Care, run by CPARC, caters to adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities to assist them with socialization and life skills.

Whether trying to knock down bowling pins, hit a home run, toss a ball into buckets, or spin a wheel to win a prize, the 40 clients loved the attention and the fun games. There were fourteen stations of games, and clients received a sticker on their game card after each station visited.

Each volunteer lent their joy-filled spirit and enthusiasm staffing carnival games, leading clients around to each station and taking pictures. After some games, some clients raised their hands in exultation as if being crowned a new world champion.

Noted Pamela Raudabaugh, Program Manager at Life Time, "We would like to thank all the wonderful volunteers who blessed the clients at Life Time with the 2018 Carnival and helped them with each game! Special thanks to those who took time off work to bring such joy to our clients."

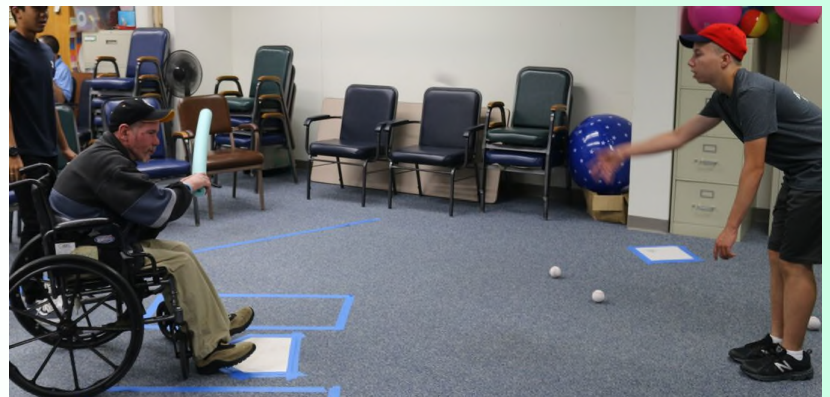

Amanda Yoder Nolan, and her husband, Jacob, visited Slate Hill just the previous Sunday for the FIRST time ever, but joined this missional effort. Amanda stated how much she enjoyed being there. Bob Saline, who took over 100 pictures at a photo booth in addition to action shots noted that it was "a fun day for us and the clients, too!"

The clients ran through the games A LOT faster than any of the staff or volunteers anticipated. Thus, there was some impromptu group activities, featuring the limbo, hitting balloons in the air and singing after the carnival games concluded.

More Fun at Time Life Carnival!

Sewing Circle Celebrates its 100th Anniversary

(Part 3 of 3)

Lucy McAloose credits her mom for passing her love for sewing to her. “My mother sewed all the time,” Lucy recalls. “My mom was a very active part of the Sewing Circle at Martin’s Mennonite in Orrville, Ohio, where I grew up. I remember going to Sewing Circle with her during the summer months when I was off school. My mom taught me to sew and instilled the importance of using our talents to the furtherance of God’s kingdom. It is her influence and example that cultivated my interest and passion in joining the Sewing Circle,” noted Lucy. “I see it as my mission, my ministry.”

Nancy Nisly comes to the Sewing Circle in part because it’s a way to remember the poor who are always with us. “These ‘comfort items’ are so needed in our world today,” she noted. Janet Zimmerman enjoys the time she spends with other ladies and doing something to help others in need. Elizabeth Martin, one of the newer participants in the group enjoys the great friendship, encouragement, fun and camaraderie of the women who together share the goal of working for those in need.

Most in the group allow God to use their hands to create school kit bags and comforter tops while others in the church are an extension of the Sewing Circle knitting winter hats and prayer shawls. Over 15 years ago, Ruth Musselman found a pattern for knitting winter hats when she worked at Michaels Craft Store. “There are four looms in a kit,” noted Pat, “for four different hat sizes.” Deborah Saline, Lisa Tothoro and Pat continue the tradition Ruth and Pat began. “We get the bulk of the yarn from Mount Olivet United Methodist Church on Simpson Ferry in Mechanicsburg,” said Pat, “in addition to individual donors.” In fact, as Pat was being interviewed for this story, Ira Sollenberger brought Pat a bag of yarn his wife Erma wasn’t able to use.

Each hat takes about  $\frac{3}{4}$  of skein of yarn and between  $1\frac{1}{2}$  to 2 hours to make. Pat estimates she makes between 300 – 500 hats a year! Over 7,000 hats have been made by various participants since Ruth and Pat began this important work. Most of the hats are donated to New Hope Ministries for their clients and children. But they have also been donated to MCC’s Material Resource Center, Soup Kitchens in Harrisburg and Palmyra, and even Russia.

Deborah Saline and Maxine Zook knit the bulk of prayer shawls which are blessed with prayer before being gifted either to Slate Hillers or those outside the church. They serve as a warm symbol and reminder of the prayers for any need a recipient may be experiencing.

For many years, Sewing Circle members donated the materials needed to create comforters and the like. In recent years, members, with help from folks like Betty Zimmerman and Lorraine Myers, have baked and donated baked goods to sell in order to help fund comforter materials. Fabric and supply costs increase each year so members in 2016 appealed to the BBQ Committee for consideration of BBQ proceeds to help them continue their important work. In 2016, the Sewing Circle was approved to receive $750 from the Chicken BBQ proceeds to purchase batting (filling), thread to knot the comforters, fabric for the backs of comforters and for school kit bags, ribbon for drawstrings for the bags, and fabric for comforter tops. In 2017 the group received $1,000 to continue their efforts.

Rachel Zimmerman is amazed by the patience of the ladies in the group. Sometimes during Wednesday Night Out her daughter, Sarina, along with Kyla Lamb and Tyleeanna Jenkins would venture into the Sewing Circle room and the ladies would stop everything to teach these budding Sewing Circle members how to knot comforters! "It's a great group," said Rachel. "I don't sew but I just enjoy the fellowship of the ladies. I hope (the Sewing Circle) continues."

The Sewing Circle today is indebted to those women who gathered 100 years ago to initiate a tradition of service in the name of Christ that continues today.

For a complete printed copy of all three parts of this story, contact Ulli Klemm at ulliklemm@yahoo.com or (724) 464-8748. Photos by Bob Saline.
